

Ms. Charlie Jene

The Talk of L.A.

<http://www.mscharliejene.com/>

She's Hot, She's Cool, She's Jazz & Blues; Standards, Swing, Rock & Roll, R&B, Classic Soul,
She's the Lady That's in Control ~

~ If you want your event to be a total success, then you must call upon the very best ~

Ms. Jene serves up the very finest assortment of classic blues and jazz. Beginning in Ohio, Charlie has been singing professionally since 1970. Ms. Jene became the first successful blind female singer in that region. Throughout her long and esteemed singing career, Charlie has entertained some of America's brightest stars, such as:

- The weddings of actor Orlando Jones and those of actresses Lisa Kudrow, and Holly Robinson with football great Rodney Peete
- Numerous Hollywood TV cast parties
- The bar mitzvah of Geraldo Rivera's son
- Birthday parties of "Baywatch's" David Charvet; actor James Coburn; the 85th birthday celebration of comedian extraordinaire, Milton Berle; and caterer to the stars Colin Cowie
- Gianni Versace's party for the launching of his then new fragrance, "Blond;"
- And countless numbers of concerts, private parties, and corporate events.

Charlie's rousing performance at the Quai Du Blues in Paris in 1996, was so well received that she was enthusiastically invited to return for an encore performance. Ms. Jene performed at the 1996 A&M Grammy party at Chasen's of Hollywood as well as the 1997 Soul Train Awards post-award celebrations in Hollywood. Charlie currently performs with her band -the Champion All-Stars, throughout Southern California at such renowned spots as Kevin Costner's Twin Palms Restaurants, and the B.B. King Club.

With her immense talent, Charlie's fulfillment of a recording career has to be simply a matter of time. For the planet's listening pleasure, we all hope that happens for her!